

RumbaFish Presents at the SDForum Investor Showcase

Selected for Investor Forum: Powered by Deloitte, DLA Piper and SDForum

June 9, 2009

RumbaFish Technologies, Inc.
Palo Alto, CA

RumbaFish presented the company at the Investor Forum Investor Showcase event in June. This program, powered by Deloitte, DLA Piper and SDForum, highlights emerging technology companies at early and late stage.

Only the top 15 scoring applicants are awarded entry to this semi-annual showcase event. This year alone, companies participating in the Investor Forum and other SDForum programs have received over $25million.

The Investor Forum provides exposure for selected technology companies to make targeted connections in Silicon Valley and pitch their company and product to a private audience of venture investors.

At the special by-invitation-only VC Preview, roughly 50+ venture and angel investors took part in the showcase event session.
